To the Selectmen of the Town of Waltham Gentlemen we the under signed understand that there has been an application handed into you to have an article in your warrant for the next annual meeting, to see if the town will agree to have two districts and have the old town line the dividing line. And we think it would be best not to divide the district at present. But if it is divided we wish your honours to insert in your warrant that we wish to belong to a middle district and have it extend half or three fourths of a mile each way from the Schoolhouse as in duty bound will ever serve
